- Winner of Best Wedding Venue (Countryside) in the North-West at The Wedding Industry Awards
- Beautifully transformed hill farm near Bolton set in gorgeous surroundings
- Rustic barns, tipi, firepit, an Aladdin's cave of amazing props to decorate the venue as your own and some very special guests – bow-tie-wearing llamas, alpacas and donkeys to join the party...
- Run by highly successful and inspiring entrepreneur Celia Gaze as a family business
- Amazing wedding case studies available – from the powerful story of one bride's determination to organise her dream farm wedding to her terminally ill groom in a fortnight, to wedfests, vegan and gorgeous vintage weddings

The Wellbeing Farm is a bespoke wedding venue with a difference, set in spectacular countryside. It was transformed from a neglected hill farm in 2013 into the perfect venue for couples looking for a wedding day that is unique, fun-filled and completely magical. The rustic barn and wedding pavilion are the ultimate romantic setting to say 'I do' and the farm's bow-tie-wearing llamas, alpacas and donkeys join in the celebrations too – making it an unforgettable day!

The venue has two stunning Wedding Houses, one even has its own lake and is the perfect setting for getting ready in the morning and for the wedding night. The venue's three bars, including the famous 'Bar O'Llama', created from a horse trailer, serve everything from vintage cocktails to a fabulous selection of gins. While the llama boudoir, tipi, firepit, crazy golf, animals and garden games ensure guests have endless entertainment.

The venue's approach is to help make planning a wedding as stress-free as possible, with wedding coordinators on hand to guide couples every step of the way – from finding the best room layout for you, to liaising with photographers to get the best sunset shot. The boutique venue has everything you could dream of for a fun-filled, quirky, magical wedding, with a difference.

Why Put a Bowtie on a Llama?

Why Put a Bow Tie on a Llama? How a crazy idea can change your life and transform your business, is the new book from the founder of The Wellbeing Farm, Celia Gaze. The book is insightful look into the farm's amazing transformation from a neglected hill farm, to a multi-award-winning wedding venue.

In the book, Celia shares the remarkable lessons she learnt from putting a bow tie on a llama, embracing what makes The Wellbeing Farm unique. It celebrates what having the guts to follow your dreams can achieve. The book is published by Practical Inspiration and is out 10 January 2020, priced £12.99.
